HAWAIIANGAZETTE

AN INDEPENDENT JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO HAWAIIAN PROGRESS.

PUBLISHED AND EDITED BY HENRY M. WHITNEY.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18. His Margary tire Kiso embarked for the United States at 10:30 a. w. on Tuesday, being conveyed to the Benicia in Captain Hopkin's gig. The vards of each of the three war steamers is port were manned, and a royal salute fired from each, as he stepped on board the frigate, which displayed the royal easign from her main mast bead. At 11:15, she steamed out of the huroor, amid the cheers of the multitude who lined the wharves. As the King alighted from his carriage at the wharf, it was an effecting sight to see the natives crowd around him, some crying some chanting males, and others seeking to shake or kiss his hands. It required some nerve for himself to check the emotions which were striving to overcome him, for it is not often a King has to pass through such an ordeal. The embassy consists, as stated last week, of the King,

HIS MAJESTY KING KALAKACA will have the honor of being the first crowned bend who has ever visited the United States, since their establishment as a government. He will be received with the highest bonors that can be shown to any monarch. During his mign the (kupus) prohibitions were abolished, for in iden times the men and women were not allowed to eat together; they could not eat together, they could not est food cooked in the same oven, and the system of some was very oppressive to the people, but God put it into the heart of Kamehameha II. to abolish these burdens.

Kamehameha III. adopted the rule of righteensness as the rule of his Kingdom. In his reign right ceralled, and he said, the good man is my man; my Kingdom is a Kingdom of light and intelligence. In his reign good men were encouraged, and evil men were ashamed and hid themselves. This good King also gave many rights to the common people. This question is a hard one to answer; do not puzzle. Functh and and rograelyes to solve it, for you cannot do it. Ob, for some prophet, to solve this mystery-I will be the prophet to give this answer. It is this: Let every purent gather his children together, place around them his arms, and yow that he will not let them, both daughters and suce, wander away i to the paths of cvil. In this way alone will this nation be saved. He who stands at the helm of the ship of state wishes to direct her prew towards the port of salvation. The great desire of our King is to seek aid for the agricultural interests of the country—the cane fields, and the rice fields are the soul of this country. Much attention is paid in the United States to the cultivation of forms, and we read that some fine ferrories are being constructed there, as ornaments to public institutions. In this city, as well throughout as our islands, more attention is beng paid to this subject. It has been suggested that a fernery built in some part of the grounds of Alliokalani House would be a great attraction as well as an ocusment to what is undoubtedly the floost building in Polynesia. In it might be gathered and cultivated every variety of Haunian ens, of which Dr. Hillebrand has catalogued ome two hundred. To this collection might be ulded specimens of other rare Hawaiian mounrain plants, which would greatly enhance its What an attraction to strangers as well as to residents would be such a conservatory. where within a small compass might be exhibited the finest collection of ferns to be found in any country, including our majestic pain, which grows to a hight of thirty or forty feet. Of course there would be expense attending such an undertaking. but we submit to the public whether the benefits would not outweigh whatever its cost might be. | PERS TO CALL THE AFFENTION OF ALL while it would show an appreciation of the beautiful as displayed in our own Hawsiian mountain retreats, which are practically inaccessible to the
